Police investigating hit and run collision involving pedestrian Suspect vehicle is an older model white SUV with driver side mirror damage

Howard County police are investigating a hit and run collision in the area of Daniels Road and Old Frederick Road in Ellicott City.

At approximately 7:30 p.m., a UPS driver was out of his truck delivering packages in the 2300 block of Daniels Road when a white, older model SUV traveling southbound entered the northbound lanes and struck him. The SUV fled the scene without stopping.

The UPS driver, Charles Taylor Burry, 27, of Ellicott City, was transported to the University of Maryland Shock Trauma Center in critical condition.

Investigators believe the suspect vehicle likely has damage to the driver side mirror. Anyone who sees a vehicle fitting this description should call 911.

No additional details about the suspect vehicle or driver are available at this time. The investigation is ongoing.
